

Salt Lake County A.R.E.S., Inc.

Level One Certification

[ARES 105]
Revised 22 April 2006

Call sign		Name
Equipment Requirements (Grab-n-Go Kit)
Completed	AEC Initials	Radio, dual-band or two-meter programmable synthesized CTCSS capable handi-talkie (HT)
		Antenna, HT 1/2 or 5/8-wave gain
		Battery pack, HT alkaline with 2 sets of batteries
		Earphone for HT
		Briefcase, gym bag or similar containing:
		Salt Lake County ARES (SLCoARES) Certification Plan handout [ARES105]
		Map of Salt Lake County: Rand McNally Atlas or folding map (Directory entries in this resource manual reference page and grid numbering found in the 2003 Salt Lake and Vicinity Street Guide book version. Although not required, this edition could assist in quicker response to assignments.)
		Message forms [ARES213]
		Writing paper
		Pens and pencils
		Clipboard
		Large size plastic trash bags
Training Requirements
Completed	AEC Initials	Nets: Check into three SLCoARES nets within two months: ____/____/____, ____/____/____, ____/____/____.
		Technician or higher license
		Register with SLCoARES as Associate or Supporting Member
		Attend one In-person meeting ____/____/____
		Drive to the locations of three EOCs or hospitals for Level One certification. Prepare Transit Reports [ARES404] from home and from work to each facility. Continue to visit all EOCs and hospitals. See EOC and Hospital Endorsements.
		Personally observe one Net Control Station (NCS) ____/____/____.
		Demonstrate ability to program your own HT radio with SLCoARES VHF (11) and if applicable, UHF (10) repeater and simplex frequencies. [ARES522]
		Design Family Emergency Preparedness Plan
By my initials above, I certify that I have completed each of the above items.		I have reviewed and approved the foregoing certification.
Signed		EC/AEC
Date		Date